

STREETS AHEAD

Don't drink & drive

Don't risk your licence by making poor decisions while celebrating with family and friends this festive season.

If you plan to drink, plan not to drive, as WA Police Force will be enforcing drink driving laws anytime, anywhere.

It is illegal for full licence holders to drive with blood alcohol concentration (BAC) of 0.05% or more.

P-platers, certain heavy vehicle drivers, and on-demand transport drivers must have a zero BAC at all times. For more information, visit our website.

Penalty

Drink driving penalties vary. Visit the website below for full details.

Just an after work drink?

Just order a ride home.
